NARA G. KING,

Pro Se Plaintiff,

v.

THE UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

FILED

AUG 24 2018

U.S. COURT OF FEDERAL CLAIMS

O R D E R

On June 21, 2018, the court issued an order (Docket No. 7) which granted defendant's motion to consolidate three of pro se plaintiff's complaints. In that same order the court gave notice that Ms. King had until July 20, 2018, to respond to defendant's motion to dismiss (Docket No. 6). On August 9, 2018, the court issued a second order (Docket No. 10) giving notice that Ms. King had until August 17, 2018, to respond to defendant's motion to dismiss and that failure to do so, would result in the dismissal of the consolidated cases for failure to prosecute.<sup>1</sup>

A review of court records indicates that as of this date, Ms. King has yet to respond to defendant's motion to dismiss the above-captioned consolidated cases. Accordingly, because Ms. King has failed to timely comply with the court's orders, the above-captioned consolidated cases are hereby DIMISSED pursuant to Rule 41(b) of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims for failure to prosecute.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

On June 21, 2018, the court (Docket No. 7) issued an order granting defendant's motion to consolidate. The court's order also gave plaintiff notice that she had until July 20, 2018, to respond to defendant's motion.

Should plaintiff fail to respond, the court will dismiss the above-captioned consolidated cases for failure to prosecute.
